PAKISTAN COUNCIL OF
ARCHITECTS AND TOWN PLANNERS
(ORDINANCE IX OF 1983)

NOTIFICATION

No. PCATP/Admin/2026-03-01

Dated: March 12, 2026

In pursuance of the notifications (No.7-2/2026-Min.I.) issued by the Cabinet Division Pakistan dated 9th March 2026 and 10th March 2026 regarding austerity and fuel conservation measures applicable to Federal Government establishments, autonomous bodies and statutory authorities, and in view of the need to support national fuel conservation efforts, the competent authority in the Pakistan Council of Architects and Town Planners has been pleased to adopt the following arrangements in the Council with immediate effect.

1. Four-Day Workweek

The office of PCATP shall observe a four-day workweek as part of the fuel conservation measures announced by the Government of Pakistan.

Working Days: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday	Off Days: Friday, Saturday and Sunday
---	---

2. Work-From-Home / Online Working Arrangement

Work-from-home arrangements may be implemented for up to fifty percent (50%) of staff on an alternate basis, wherever feasible, in order to reduce commuting and fuel consumption.

3. Virtual Meetings

Physical meetings will remain banned. All meetings shall be conducted through virtual or online platforms to reduce travel and lodging expenditure in all Federal and Provincial Government establishments and entities.

4. Continuity of Services

All officers and staff shall ensure that core regulatory and public service functions of the Council remain fully operational, including processing of professional registrations, correspondence, and other statutory functions.

5. Duration

These arrangements shall remain in force until further orders or until revised instructions are issued by the Federal Government.
